PAUL J. CURRAN
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York

2 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

3 versus

73 Crim 1095

4 STUART STEINBERG et al.,

5 Defendants

7 New York, N. Y.

8 January 29, 1975 - 9:30 a.m.

9 CHARGE OF THE COURT

10 THE COURT: (Ward, D. J.) It is the custom in 11 this Court for the juror seated in the first seat to serve 12 as the foreman or forelady of the jury. In this case, your 13 foreman will be Mr. John Gutierrez.

14 Mr. Foreman, ladies and gentlemen:

15 We come now to that stage of the case where you and 16 I do our part in the administration of justice in this case.

17 You are the sole and exclusive judges of the facts.
18 It is your function to pass upon the weight of the evidence; 19 you determine the credibility of the witnesses; you resolve 20 such conflicts as there may be in the evidence; and you draw 21 such reasonable inferences as may be warranted by the 22 testimony elicited on direct and cross-examination and the 23 exhibits in the case.

24 My function is to instruct you as to the law
25 applicable to the case. It is your duty to accept the law

2 as I give it to you in these instructions and to apply it to 3 the facts as you find them.

4 With respect to any fact matter, it is your recol-5 lection and yours alone that governs. Anything that counsel, 6 either for the Government or the defendants, may have said in 7 respect to matters in evidence or as to any factual matter, 8 whether stated in a question, in argument or in summation, is 9 not to be substituted for your own independent recollection.

10 So, too, anything I may have said during the trial 11 or may refer to during the course of these instructions as to 12 any matter in evidence or as to any factual matter is not to 13 be taken in lieu of your own recollection.

14 To repeat, it is your recollection, individually and 15 collectively, which governs.

16 From time to time, conferences at the bench were 17 conducted during the trial at the request of the attorneys or 18 at my request. These conferences were solely on questions 19 of law or logistics and are of no concern to you. You are not 20 to draw any inference for or against either side because of 21 a request for such conferences.

22 After you have retired to the jury room to deliber-23 ate, should you require assistance with regard to testimony or 24 the law as I give it to you in this charge, you may request 25 that any portion of the testimony, including any portion of the 2 tapes or any portion of my charge be read back to you. You 3 will then be brought into the courtroom, and the portion of 4 the testimony or the portion of the charge which you request 5 will be read to you.

6 In the same vein, should you wish to see the indict-7 ment or any exhibit which is in evidence, you may call for the 8 indictment or the exhibit, and it will be sent into the jury 9 room for you to see.

10 Each of the defendants has pleaded not guilty.
11 Therefore, the Government has the burden of proving the charges 12 against them beyond a reasonable doubt. It is a burden that 13 never shifts and remains upon the Government throughout the 14 entire trial.

15 A defendant does not have to prove his innocence.
16 He need not present any evidence, and he need not testify on 17 his own behalf. On the contrary, he is presumed to be innocent 18 of the charges contained in the indictment. The presumption of 19 innocence was in his favor at the start of the trial and con-20 tinues in his favor throughout the trial. It is removed if 21 and when you are satisfied that the Government has sustained 22 its burden of proving the guilt of a particular defendant on 23 a particular charge beyond a reasonable doubt.

24 You will, as I will tell you later, consider each 25 defendant separately and each charge separately.

2 As I told you when you were being selected, an 3 indictment is not evidence. It is a technique or method or 4 procedure by which persons accused by a grand jury of crimes 5 are brought into court and then their guilt or innocence is 6 determined by a trial jury such as you are.

7 An indictment has no evidentiary value. An indictment 8 does not constitute proof or evidence. It is merely an 9 accusation.

10 The indictment in this case contains fourteen counts.
11 Twelve of these counts will be presented to you for consider-12 ation. Each of these counts charges a separate offense or 13 crime. Each must be considered separately.

14 The indictment names eleven defendants. However, 15 only four -- Stuart Steinberg, William Capo, Howard Kaye and 16 James Parker -- are on trial before you. These are the only 17 persons whose guilt or innocence you must announce in your 18 verdict, although, as I will explain to you shortly, in con-19 sidering their guilt or innocence you may have to determine 20 the nature of the participation, if any, of the other persons 21 named in the indictment.

22 In the determination of innocence or guilt, you 23 must bear in mind that guilt is personal. The guilt or 24 innocence of each defendant on trial before you must be de-25 termined separately with respect to him, solely on the evidence

2 presented against him or the lack of evidence.

3           The case relative to each defendant stands upon the 4 proof of the charge against him and not against somebody else.
5 You will consider Stuart Steinberg separately; you will con-
6 sider William Capo separately; you will consider Howard Kaye 7 separately, and you will consider James Parker separately.

8           The charges in this indictment refer to the viola-9 tion of Federal law, specifically Sections 812, 841, 843 and 10 846 of Title 21 of the United States Code.

11           In pertinent part, Section 841 provides:

12           "It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly and 13 intentionally to distribute or possess with intent to 14 distribute a controlled substance."

15           Section 812 sets forth and defines "controlled 16 substances" in various schedules.

17           Section 846 makes it a crime to conspire to commit 18 certain offenses, including the offense which I have defined 19 a moment or two ago in Section 841.

20           Section 843 makes it a crime for anyone knowingly 21 and intentionally to use any communication facility in commit-22 ting or causing or facilitating the commission of any act or 23 acts in violation of the laws to which I made reference a 24 moment or two ago.

25           Turning now to the indictment, Count 1 reads as

2 follows:

3 "The grand jury charges:

4 "1. From on or about the 1st day of June 1972 and 5 continuously thereafter, up to and including the date of the 6 filing of this indictment" -- which I state to you was 7 December 5, 1973 -- "in the Southern District of New York, 8 Stuart Steinberg, John Perlman, Jeffrey Priesman, William 9 Capo, Michael Durst, Susan Weinblatt, Stephen Effron, Howard 10 Kaye, Stanley Nicastro, James Parker and Jane Doe, a/k/a 11 'Sam', the defendants, and others to the Grand Jury known and 12 unknown, unlawfully, intentionally and knowingly combined, 13 conspired, confederated and agreed together and with each 14 other to violate Sections 812, 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(B) of 15 Title 21, United States Code.

16 "2. It was part of said conspiracy that the said 17 defendants unlawfully, intentionally and knowingly would dis-18 tribute and possess with intent to distribute Schedule I and 19 II narcotic drug controlled substances the exact amount there-20 of being to the Grand Jury unknown, in violation Sections 812, 21 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(A) of Title 21, United States Code.

22 "3. It was further part of said conspiracy that 23 the said defendants unlawfully, intentionally and knowingly 24 would distribute and possess with intent to distribute Schedule 25 III controlled substances, the exact amount thereof being to 2 the grand jury unknown, in violation of Sections 812, 3 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(B) of Title 21, United States Code.

4 "OVERT ACTS"

5 "In pursuance of the said conspiracy and to effect
6 the objects thereof, the following overt acts were committed 7 in the Southern District of New York:"

8 There follow eleven stated or alleged overt acts, 9 which I will return to later in my charge; and, finally, at 10 the bottom of the count, we have "(Title 21, United States 11 Code, Section 846.)"

12 Following the conspiracy charged in Count 1, there 13 are additional charges, which are called substantive counts.
14 The conspiracy charge in Count 1 is entirely separate and dis-15 tinct from the charges made in the substantive counts. This 16 fact, however, does not prevent you from considering proof of 17 actual violations as evidence that a conspiracy existed.

18 However, before you may convict any of the defend-19 ants under Count 1, all of the following essential elements 20 must be established by the Government beyond a reasonable 21 doubt:

22 First: you must be satisfied that the conspiracy 23 charged did in fact exist; that is, that there was an agree-24 ment to deal in controlled substances and narcotic drug control 25 substances, at or about the time alleged. Although the 2 indictment alleges a period from on or about the first day of 3 June 1972 and up to and including the date of the filing of 4 the indictment, which I told you was December 5, 1973, I think 5 you will recall that the proof covered the period between 6 June and September of 1973.

7 Second: that a particular defendant -- as I say, you 8 must consider each defendant separately -- that a particular 9 defendant knowingly and wilfully associated himself with the 10 conspiracy; and

11 Third: that at least one of the overt acts set forth 12 in the indictment did take place and that at least one of the 13 overt acts took place in the Southern District of New York, 14 which includes the Borough of Manhattan, in which this court-15 house is located.

16 What is a conspiracy?

17 A conspiracy is a combination or agreement of two 18 or more persons by concerted action to accomplish a criminal 19 or unlawful purpose or some purpose not in itself criminal or 20 unlawful by criminal or unlawful means.

21 The gist of the crime of conspiracy is the unlawful 22 combination or agreement to violate the law. Whether or not 23 the defendants accomplished what is alleged they conspired 24 to do is immaterial to the question of guilt or innocence.

25 A conspiracy has sometimes been called a partnership

2 in criminal purposes, in which every member becomes the agent
3 of every other member. However, to establish a conspiracy, 4 the Government is not required to show that two or more per-5 sons sat around a table and entered into a solemn contract, 6 orally or in writing, stating that they have formed a conspir-7 acy to violate the law, setting forth details of the plan, the 8 means by which the unlawful project is to be carried out or 9 the part to be played by each conspirator.

10 Indeed, it would be extraordinary if there were 11 such a formal document or specific oral agreement. Your common 12 sense will tell you that when men in fact undertake to enter 13 into a criminal conspiracy, much is left to unexpressed under-14 standing. Conspirators do not usually reduce their agreements 15 to writing or acknowledge them before a Notary Public, nor do 16 they publicly broadcast their plans.

17 From its very nature, a conspiracy is almost always 18 characterized by secrecy, thereby rendering detection difficult.

19 Thus, it is sufficient if two or more persons in any 20 manner, through any contrivance, impliedly or tacitly, come to 21 a common understanding to violate the law. Express language 22 or specific words are not required to indicate assent or 23 attachment to a conspiracy.

24 Let me emphasize to you that it is not required that 25 you find all eleven of the co-conspirators alleged in the 2 indictment were in fact members of the conspiracy in order to 3 find that a conspiracy existed. You need only find that two 4 or more persons, including any of these four defendants, 5 entered into an unlawful agreement in order to find that a 6 conspiracy existed.

7 In determining whether or not there has been an 8 unlawful agreement, you may judge acts and conduct of the al-9 leged members of the conspiracy which are done to carry out an 10 apparent criminal purpose. The adage "Actions speak louder 11 than words" is applicable here. Usually, the only evidence 12 available is that of disconnected acts on the part of the al-13 leged individual conspirators, which acts, however, when taken 14 together in connection with each other and with the reasonable 15 inferences flowing therefrom show a conspiracy or agreement 16 to secure a particular result as satisfactorily and conclusive-17 ly as more direct proof.

18 If, upon such consideration of all the evidence, 19 direct or circumstantial -- and I shall define those two terms 20 later in my charge -- you find beyond a reasonable doubt that 21 the minds of alleged conspirators, or at least two of them, 22 met in an understanding way and that they agreed, as I have 23 explained a conspiratorial agreement to you, to work together 24 in furtherance of the unlawful scheme alleged in the indictment 25 then the proof of the existence of the conspiracy is

2 established.

3                   You have heard testimony that Bryan Noone and Arthur 4 Anderson were acting as agents, and Ricky Citrola was an in-5 formant for the Drug Enforcement Administration, an agency of 6 the United States Government, in their dealings with Mr.
7 Steinberg and other alleged co-conspirators.

8                   In determining whether Steinberg "conspired", as 9 that term may be defined, you may not consider any agreements 10 or understandings that Steinberg had, if any, with Noone, 11 Anderson or Citrola. You must find beyond a reasonable doubt 12 that Steinberg and the alleged co-conspirators conspired among 13 themselves, separate and apart from any agreement Steinberg or 14 anyone else may have had with Noone, Anderson or Citrola.

15                   Accordingly, evidence, even if believed, that 16 Steinberg agreed with Noone, Anderson or Citrola to distribute 17 or possess with intent to distribute a substance is not proof 18 that Steinberg conspired as charged in Count 1.

19                   There must be proof beyond a reasonable doubt that 20 Steinberg agreed with the alleged co-conspirators as distin-21 uished from any agreement between Steinberg and Noone, 22 Anderson or Citrola to distribute or possess with intent to 23 distribute controlled substances and narcotic drug controlled 24 substances.

25                   It is not necessary for the Government to prove the 2 success of the conspiracy in order to establish a violation of 3 a conspiracy statute. As a conspiracy is basically an agree-4 ment to violate the law, it may exist even though you find 5 the objectives were never accomplished.

6 The indictment charges several illegal objects or 7 goals of the conspiracy. These illegal objects were the sale 8 of Schedule I controlled substances, in this case hashish and 9 hashish oil; the sale of Schedule II narcotic drug controlled 10 substances, in this case cocaine; and the sale of Schedule III 11 controlled substances, in this case PCP, Seconal and Tuinal.

12 It is not necessary that the Government prove that 13 these defendants agreed to distribute all of those substances.
14 It is sufficient for the purpose of establishing whether or 15 not a conspiracy as charged in the indictment existed if you 16 find beyond a reasonable doubt an agreement between two or 17 more persons, including any of these four defendants, to dis-18 tribute any of those substances.

19 I caution you that the indictment charges, and 20 the Government must prove, the existence of one conspiracy, 21 not more, but I instruct you that a single conspiracy may have 22 more than one illegal purpose, and a defendant need not parti-23 cipate in all of the illegal purposes of a conspiracy in order 24 to be found guilty, so long as he is found by you to be a 25 member of the single conspiracy charged in the indictment and 2 not of some other conspiracy.

3                   On the other hand, if you find that the Government 4 failed to establish beyond a reasonable doubt the one overall 5 agreement as charged among the defendant you are considering 6 and the alleged co-conspirators, you must acquit that defendant 7 of the conspiracy charge.

8                   Similarly, if you find that the Government failed to 9 show the existence of the one overall agreement charged beyond 10 a reasonable doubt but, rather, a number of separate agree-11 ments among the alleged co-conspirators, then you must acquit 12 the defendants of the conspiracy charge.

13                  Once satisfied that the conspiracy charged existed 14 and that, in fact, it was a single conspiracy, you must ask 15 yourself who its members were.

16                  In deciding whether or not a defendant was a member 17 of a conspiracy, you must do so on the basis of that defendant 18 own statements, acts and conduct.

19                  In determining whether a defendant became a member 20 of the conspiracy, you must determine not only whether or not 21 the particular defendant participated in the conspiracy but 22 whether he did so with knowledge of its unlawful purpose. Did 23 he join with awareness of at least some of the basic aims and 24 purposes of the conspiracy?

25                  The word "knowingly" as defined in the crimes

2 charged here means that the particular act was done voluntar-3 ily and purposely and not because of mistake or accident.

4 Knowledge may be proven by a defendant's conduct and 5 by all the facts and circumstances surrounding the case. No 6 person can intentionally avoid knowledge by closing his eyes 7 to facts which should prompt him to investigate.

8 In determining whether a defendant acted knowingly 9 and intentionally, it is relevant for you to consider his 10 mental and physical condition during the period of time he is 11 alleged to have committed the acts charged. If you find that 12 a defendant was under the influence of drugs at the time of 13 any acts or during any conversation, either in person or by 14 telephone, you would be justified in concluding that there was 15 a reasonable doubt as to whether the defendant acted or spoke 16 intentionally, at least on that occasion.

17 The word "wilfully" is used in the crimes charged 18 here and means that the act was committed by a defendant 19 voluntarily, with knowledge that it was prohibited by law and 20 with the purpose of violating the law and not by accident, 21 mistake or in good faith.

22 Knowledge is a matter of inference from facts 23 proved. It is not necessary that the particular defendant 24 you are considering be fully informed as to the details of 25 the scope of the conspiracy in order to justify any inference

2 of knowledge on his part. To have guilty knowledge, the de-3 fendant need not know the full extent of the conspiracy and 4 all of its activities and actors.

5           Once you have found a conspiracy to have existed 6 and a defendant to have knowingly participated in it, the ex-7 tent of his individual participation has no bearing on his 8 guilt or innocence. The guilt of a conspirator is not measur-9 by the extent or the duration of his participation. Even if 10 he participated in it to a degree more limited than that of 11 his co-conspirators, an individual defendant is equally cul-12 pable so long as he was, in fact, a conspirator.

13           However, participation in a single isolated trans-14 action is not sufficient to show membership in a continuing 15 conspiracy.

16           I want to caution you that mere innocent association 17 with one or more of the conspirators does not make one a membe-18 of the conspiracy; nor is knowledge without participation suf-19 ficient. What is necessary is that a defendant participate 20 with knowledge of at least some of the purposes of the con-21 spiracy and with intent to aid in the accomplishment of those 22 unlawful ends.

23           When people enter into a conspiracy to accomplish an 24 unlawful end, they become agents for one another in carrying 25 out the conspiracy. Hence, the acts or declarations of one in

2 the course of the conspiracy and in furtherance of the common 3 purpose are deemed to be the acts of all, and all are respons-4 ible for such acts.

5 Accordingly, if you find in accordance with these 6 instructions that the alleged conspiracy existed and that some 7 or all of the defendants participated in it, then acts done 8 and statements and declarations made in furtherance of the 9 conspiracy by the persons found by you to have been members of 10 the conspiracy may be considered against a defendant who you 11 find was a member, even though such acts or declarations were 12 made in the absence and without the knowledge of that defend-13 ant.

14 It is important to note that this principle applies 15 only to the acts and declarations done or made during the 16 continuance of the conspiracy and in furtherance of it, that 17 is, to carry out an unlawful objective or purpose of the con-18 spiracy. It does not apply to acts or declarations which do 19 not have these characteristics.

20 As I have already mentioned, an essential element of 21 the crime of conspiracy is that an overt act to effect the 22 object of the conspiracy be committed by at least one of the 23 co-conspirators.

24 An overt act is any step, action or conduct which 25 is taken to achieve or further the objective of the conspiracy.

2 An overt act need be neither criminal nor the very crime which 3 is the object of the conspiracy. Thus, in this case, the 4 overt acts listed in the indictment are not necessarily, by 5 themselves, criminal or illegal.

6 If you find that any of these acts were committed 7 to further the unlawful enterprise, regardless of whether it 8 was an act which by itself would be innocent, then the overt 9 act requirement has been satisfied.

10 I indicated before when I was reading from Count 1 11 that it alleged certain overt acts. I will now turn back to 12 Count 1 of the indictment and read the alleged overt acts:

13 "OVERT ACTS"

14 "In pursuance of the said conspiracy and to effect
15 the objects thereof, the following overt acts were committed 16 in the Southern District of New York:

17 "1. On or about June 27, 1973, defendant William 18 Capo delivered a package containing phencyclidine to defendant 19 Stuart Steinberg, in the vicinity of 135 East 35th Street, 20 New York, New York."

21 I state to you as a matter of law that that location 22 is within the Southern District of New York. Whether or not 23 this happened is a matter for you to determine from the evi-24 dence before you.

25 "2. On or about July 10, 1973, defendant Stuart

2 Steinberg delivered a package containing phencyclidine, in the 3 vicinity of 135 East 35th Street, New York, New York.

4 "3. On or about July 10, 1973, defendant Michael 5 Durst went to 135 East 35th Street, New York, New York.

6 "4. On or about July 17, 1973, defendant Stuart
7 Steinberg discussed the sale of ten pounds of phencyclidine 8 for $136,000.

9 "5. On or about July 23, 1973, the defendant Jeffry 10 Priesman had a telephone conversation.

11 "6. On or about July 26, 1973, defendants Howard 12 Kaye and Stuart Steinberg discussed the sale of fifty pounds 13 of either cocaine or phencyclidine for $680,000.

14 "7. On or about July 26, 1973, defendants Stanley 15 Nicastro and Stuart Steinberg had a telephone conversation.

16 "8. On or about July 26, 1973, defendants James 17 Parker and Jane Doe, a/k/a 'Sam', had a telephone conversation.

18 "9. On or about August 26, 1973, defendants Susan 19 Weinblatt and Stuart Steinberg discussed the sale of ten 20 pounds of hashish.

21 "10. On or about August 8, 1973, defendant Stephen 22 Effron offered to sell three pounds of cocaine to defendant
23 Stuart Steinberg.

24 "11. On or about August 28, 1973, defendant John 25 Perlman discussed the sale of fifty pounds of phencyclidine."

2 Now I have finished reading the alleged overt acts.
4 It is not necessary for the Government to prove 5 that each member of the conspiracy committed or participated 6 in the particular overt act, since the act of any one done in 7 furtherance of the conspiracy becomes the act of all the other members.

8 Also, the Government is not required to prove each 9 of the overt acts.

10 If you find that any one of the overt acts was done 11 in the Southern District and that it was done in furtherance 12 of the conspiracy charged, then this requirement has been 13 satisfied.

14 While the indictment charges in Count 1 that the 15 conspiracy began on or about the 1st day of June 1972 and con-16 tinued to the date of the filing of the indictment, which, as 17 I have indicated, was December 5, 1973, it is not essential 18 that the Government prove that the conspiracy started and 19 ended on or about those specific dates.

B 5
20 Indeed, in the present case, the Government's proof, 21 as I recall, is that the conspiracy ended on or about August 22 24, 1973, and encompassed a period which ran from approximately 23 June to September of 1973.

24 It is sufficient if you find that in fact a conspir-25 acy was formed and existed for some substantial time within the

2 period set forth in the indictment and that at least one overt 3 act was committed in furtherance thereof in that period.

4                   We turn now to the so-called substantive counts, 5   Counts 2, 3 and 4, which I will discuss together, and Counts 6   5, 7 through 12 and 14.

7 Counts 2, 3 and 4 of the indictment charge the de-8 fendants Steinberg and Capo as follows:

"SECOND COUNT

10 "The Grand Jury further charges:

11                   "On or about the 26th day of June 1973, in the 12                   Southern District of New York, Stuart, Steinberg, William Capo
13                   and Michael Durst, the defendants, unlawfully, intentionally 14                   and knowingly did distribute and possess with intent to dis-
15                   tribute a Schedule III controlled substance, to wit, approxi-
16                   mately .21 grams of phencyclidine hydrochloride.

"THIRD COUNT

20 "The Grand Jury further charges:

2 mately 50.43 grams of phencyclidine hydrochloride.

3 (Title 21, United States Code, Sections 812,

4 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(B).)

5 "FOURTH COUNT

6 "The Grand Jury further charges:

7 "On or about the 10th day of July 1973, in the 8 Southern District of New York, Stuart Steinberg, William Capo
9 and Michael Durst, the defendants, unlawfully, intentionally
10 and knowingly did distribute and possess with intent to dis-
11 tribute a Schedule III controlled substance, to wit, approxi-
12 mately 222.8 grams of phencyclidine hydrochloride.

13 (Title 21, United States Code, Sections 812, 14 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(B).)"

15 With regard to these so-called substantive counts 16 of the indictment, Counts 2, 3 and 4, before you can find 17 a defendant guilty of the crime charged, you must be convinced 18 that the Government has proved each of the following elements 19 beyond a reasonable doubt:

20 First: that on or about the dates charged, the 21 defendant either distributed or possessed with intent to dis-22 tribute a controlled substance;

23 Second: that on each occasion the defendant named 24 did so unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly, and 25 Third: that the controlled substance was phencyclidin

2 hydrochloride, which is sometimes called "PCP".

3 You will note that the first element of the offense 4 is distributing or possessing with intent to distribute the 5 particular substance.

6 At the outset, you will note that these terms are 7 used in the alternative. Therefore, you may find that the 8 first element is established if you are satisfied either that 9 the defendant you are considering distributed or possessed with 10 intent to distribute. You need not find that he did both.

11 What do these terms mean? The word "distribute" 12 means the actual constructive or attempted transfer of the 13 drug. That definition is contained in Title 21, United States 14 Code, Section 812, subdivisions 8 and 11.

15 The word "possessed" has its common, everyday mean-16 ing, that is, to have something within your control.

17 The word "intent" refers to a person's state of 18 mind. As far as intent is concerned, you are instructed that 19 a person is presumed to intend the natural and probable or 20 ordinary consequences of his acts.

21 Again, in determining whether the defendant
22 Steinberg had the specific intent to distribute a controlled 23 substance, you should consider his mental and physical condi-24 tion at the time.

25 If because of Steinberg's own drug use and the 2 consequence effect of such drugs on his mental and emotional 3 state, you find a reasonable doubt that he was capable of 4 forming the specific intent to distribute a controlled sub-5 stance at the time of the transaction, you must acquit him.

6 Putting all the words that I have mentioned together 7 the term "possess with intent to distribute" can be fairly 8 stated to mean to control an item with the state of mind or 9 purpose of transferring that item.

10 As to the second element, the terms "unlawfully", 11 "wilfully" and "knowingly", which I also defined before, mean 12 that you must be satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the 13 defendant knew what he was doing and that he did it deliberate-14 ly.

15 Of course, it is not necessary that the particular 16 defendant you are considering knew that he was violating any 17 particular law. Rather, it is sufficient if you are convinced 18 beyond a reasonable doubt that he was aware of the general 19 unlawful nature of his acts.

20 As to the third element, the indictment charges 21 that the controlled substance is phencyclidine. I instruct 22 you as a matter of law that phencyclidine is a controlled 23 substance. However, you must still find beyond a reasonable 24 doubt that the substance in Government's Exhibits 4-B, 5-C 25 and 7-C is phencyclidine or PCP.

2 On that subject, you have heard the testimony of 3 Michael Tsouros, the chemist employed by the Drug Enforcement 4 Administration.

5 B6 Turning now to Counts 5, 7, 8 through 12 and 14:

6 These counts charge violations of Section 843(b) of 7 Title 21, United States Code, which makes it a crime for any-8 one "knowingly and intentionally to use any communication 9 facility in committing or in causing or in facilitating the 10 commission of any act or acts" in violation of the laws which 11 are set forth in this indictment.

12 In this case, it is charged that the defendants used 13 the telephone in furtherance of the conspiracy charged in 14 Count 1, an act in violation of the laws which are set forth 15 in the indictment.

16 There are, as I have indicated, a number of counts 17 here. I will read the first of them, Count 5, or the Fifth 18 Count, and then, rather than continuously read them, I will 19 summarize the other counts.

20 "FIFTH COUNT"

21 "The Grand Jury further charges:

23 Southern District of New York, James Parker and Jane Doe, 24 a/k/a 'Sam', the defendants, did unlawfully, wilfully and 25 knowingly use a communication facility, to wit, the telephone,

2 in committing and in causing and facilitating the commission
3 of the conspiracy set forth in Count 1 of this indictment.

4 (Title 21, United States Code, Section 843(b).)"

5 The seventh count charges a telephone conversation
6 on the same day, the 26th day of July, 1973, involving Stuart 7 Steinberg and Howard Kaye.

8 The eighth count also alleges a telephone conversa-
9 tion on July 26, 1973, involving Stanley Nicastro and Stuart 10 Steinberg.

11 Count 9 alleges a telephone conversation on or about 12 July 31, 1973, involving William Capo, Michael Durst and 13 Stuart Steinberg.

14 Count 10 alleges a telephone conversation on or 15 about August 6, 1973, involving William Capo, Michael Durst 16 and Stuart Steinberg.

17 Count 11 alleges a telephone conversation on or 18 about August 6, 1973, involving Stuart Steinberg and Stephen 19 Effron.

20 Count 12 alleges a telephone conversation on or 21 about August 8, 1973, involving Stuart Steinberg and Stephen
22 Effron.

23 Count 14 alleges a telephone conversation on or 24 about August 8, 1973, involving Susan Weinblatt and Stuart 25 Steinberg.

2           In order to convict any defendants on these counts,
3 you must find each of the following elements beyond a reasonable
4 doubt: --

5           I would suggest, on the counts which go from Counts
6 5 through 14, although there is no Count 6, and there is no 7 Count 13, Mr. Steinberg is named in Counts 7 through 12 and 8 14; Mr. Capo is named in Counts 9 and 10; Mr. Kaye is named 9 in Count 7, and Mr. Parker is named in Count 5.

10          In order to convict any defendant on these counts,
12 doubt:

- 13           1. That the conspiracy charged in Count 1 existed.
- 14           2. That on or about the date charged the defendant 15 or defendants knowingly or intentionally used the telephone.
- 16           3. That this use of the telephone was for the purpose 17 of furthering the conspiracy charged in Count 1.

18          You may consider evidence relating to a defendant's 19 mental state at the time of the alleged commission of certain 20 acts such as telephone conversations he may have engaged in, 21 to determine whether he possessed the mental capacity and intent 22 required to constitute a violation of the Federal narcotics 23 laws.

24          The defendants Kaye and Steinberg contend that by 25 virtue of mental disease or defect resulting at least in part

2 from their use of drugs, they were not responsible for their 3 conduct at the times and places charged in the indictment.
4 They have offered evidence in support of this contention.

5 The Government has offered evidence in opposition 6 to it. The burden of proof is upon the Government to prove 7 beyond a reasonable doubt that each defendant was responsible 8 for his conduct during the period covered by the charges in the 9 indictment.

10 The law defines mental disease as defect for the 11 purpose of responsibility for criminal conduct as follows:

12 "A person is not responsible for criminal conduct 13 if at the time of such conduct as a result of mental 14 disease or defect he lacks substantial capacity either to 15 appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform 16 his conduct to the requirements of law."

17 Under that definition, any lack of capacity must be 18 the result of mental disease or defect, including disease or 19 defect induced by the use of drugs and must be substantial.

20 The lack of capacity may be either to appreciate 21 one's wrongful conduct or to conform such conduct to the re-22 quirements of law. The mere fact that a person repeatedly 23 engages in criminal conduct does not in and of itself justify 24 a finding that he or she is not responsible for his conduct.

25 You will recall that the defendants Kaye and 2 Steinberg called three doctors who have specialties in 3 psychiatry. They had the other specialties, but I mention 4 psychiatry at this time. You heard that testimony, and you 5 should consider that testimony on the issue of the respons-6 ibility of the defendants Kaye and Steinberg for their con-7 duct.

8 However, you are by no means limited in considering 9 this issue to the opinions of these doctors. You are en-10 titled to take into account, and you should take into account, 11 any other evidence that you believe relates to that issue, 12 including the evidence which you have previously considered 13 on the issue of whether a particular defendant's conduct was 14 wilful.

15 The defendant Steinberg also contends that the 16 transactions in this case were induced by Government employees.
17 In short, he advances a defense which the law terms entrap-18 ment or enticement.

19 Under this defense, if you find that no crime would 20 have occurred but for the conduct of Agents Noone and Anderson 21 or Ricky Citrola, you must acquit Steinberg of all charges.

22 Now, let us consider this defense. Law enforcement 23 officials, in their efforts to enforce the criminal laws and 24 to apprehend those engaged in criminal activities, may re-25 sort to strategems or deception and may also use informers.

2 Such methods are not in any way forbidden by law and are 3 often necessary in the detection and prosecution of certain 4 crimes.

5 Whether or not you personally agree with the policy 6 of using such methods is not in issue and is not before you.
7 The fact that Government officials or employees merely afford 8 opportunities or facilities to one who is ready and willing 9 to violate the law when the opportunity presents itself does 10 not constitute entrapment or enticement.

11 When, for example, the Government has reasonable 12 grounds for believing that a person is engaged in the illicit B7 13 sale of narcotics, it is not unlawful entrapment or enticement 14 for a Government agent to pretend to be someone else and to 15 offer, directly or through an informer or other decoy, to 16 purchase narcotics from such suspected person.

17 However, in their efforts to enforce the laws, the 18 Government officials or employees may not entrap an innocent 19 person who, except for the Government's inducement would not 20 engage in the criminal conduct charged.

21 Thus, if the criminal design originates with the 22 Government officers or employees, and they implant in the 23 mind of an otherwise innocent person the disposition to com-24 mit the crime charged and to induce its commission, the 25 prosecution may not succeed.

2                   In short, entrapment or enticement occurs only when 3                   the criminal conduct was the product of the creative activity 4                   of law enforcement officials; that is, if they initiate, 5                   incite, induce, persuade or lure an otherwise innocent per-6                   son to commit a crime or to engage in criminal conduct. And 7                   if that occurs, the Government may not avail itself of the 8                   fruits of those instigating activities.

9                   Such conduct offends the public conscience, and so, 10                   while the crime may have been committed, the Government is 11                   barred from benefiting by the improper conduct of its own 12                   officers or employees.

13                   Here, Steinberg contends that he was free of any 14                   criminal purpose to deal in drug transactions and that he 15                   had no previous disposition, intent or purpose to engage in 16                   such criminal activity but was induced to engage in the con-17                   duct charged against him by the creative activity of Govern-18                   ment officials or employees.

19                   The Government denies this and contends that 20                   Steinberg was merely afforded the opportunity on each occa-21                   sion to commit the offense and that he readily and willingly 22                   responded thereto and engaged in the transaction which are 23                   the subject of the indictment without inducement of any 24                   kind.

25                   In this case, Agent Noone is a Government agent or 2 employee. If you find some evidence that a Government 3 agent, by initiating the illegal conduct, induced the defendant 4 to engage in such conduct, then the Government must prove 5 beyond a reasonable doubt that the inducement was not the 6 cause of the crime, that is, that the defendant was ready and 7 willing to commit the crime without any persuasion.

8 To sustain its burden of proof, the Government has 9 to satisfy you that, in fact, its agents have not seduced an 10 innocent person but that the inducement which brought about 11 the offense charged against Steinberg was but another instance 12 of the kind of conduct which he was prepared to engage in if 13 given an opportunity.

14 Now, at the beginning I indicated that you are the 15 triers of the fact. You have to determine the truth, and 16 you have to appraise the credibility of the testimony and 17 of the witnesses in this case.

18 Now, how do you determine the truth and how do you 19 appraise the credibility of the witnesses who appeared here 20 and testified in this courtroom?

21 Well, you use your own plain, every day common 22 sense. You brought your common sense with you the first 23 day you stepped into this jury box. You have it with you 24 now. You will take it into the jury room, and I trust that 25 when you return ultimately from the jury room you will still

2 have it with you.

3 You have seen the witnesses; you have observed the 4 manner of their testifying, and whatever credit you may give 5 them must be determined by their conduct and their manner of 6 testifying and their relationship or interest in the outcome.
7 In other words, you again apply your common sense in your 8 everyday experience.

9 You may, of course, take into consideration the 10 interest of a witness. For example, the narcotics agents 11 might be said to have an interest in this case. It is a 12 case which they investigated. An interested witness is not 13 necessarily unworthy of belief. This is just one factor, 14 however, which you should consider or may consider in determini 15 the weight and credibility to be given to that witness' testi 16 mony.

17 If any witness has wilfully testified falsely to 18 any material fact, you may disregard all his testimony or 19 accept such part of it as you believe worthy of belief or as 20 it appeals to your reason or your judgment.

21 A witness may be discredited or impeached by con 22 tradictory evidence or by evidence that at other times the 23 witness has made statements which are inconsistent with the 24 witness' present testimony.

25 If you believe that any witness has been impeached

2 and thus discredited, it is your exclusive province to give 3 the testimony of that witness such weight and credibility, 4 if any, as you may think it deserves.

5 Because a particular witness may be a police 6 officer or another law enforcement officer such as an agent
7 of the Drug Enforcement Administration, that does not mean 8 that his testimony is deserving of any special consideration 9 or any greater or lesser weight by reason of that fact.

10 You take the witnesses as you find them; you watch 11 them as they testify and you determine based on your own com-12 mon sense what the facts are.

13 You will recall that the defendants did not 14 testify. A defendant has the absolute right to remain silent 15 and you must not regard as prejudicial to a defendant the 16 fact that he did not take the stand. You must not draw a 17 presumption of guilt or any inference against a defendant 18 because he did not testify.

19 I said a while back that I would come back to 20 the matter of direct and circumstantial evidence. It is well 21 to explain now the difference between these two types of evi-22 dence.

23 Direct evidence is where a witness testifies to 24 what he saw, heard or observed, what he knows of his own 25 knowledge, something which comes to him by virtue of his own

2 senses.

3                   Circumstantial evidence is evidence of facts and 4 circumstances from which one may infer connected facts which 5 reasonably follow the common experience of mankind. Stated 6 somewhat differently, circumstantial evidence is that evi-7 dence which tends to prove a disputed fact by proof of other 8 facts which have a logical tendency to lead the mind to a 9 conclusion that those facts exist which are sought to be 10 established.

11                  Circumstantial evidence, if believed, is of no 12 less value than direct evidence, for in either case you must 13 be convinced beyond a reasonable doubt of the guilt of the 14 defendant you are considering.

15                  Let us take one simple example, one which is 16 offered in this Courthouse, to illustrate what is meant by 17 circumstantial evidence. We will assume - although it was 18 contrary to the fact this morning - that when you entered 19 the Courthouse this morning the sun was shining brightly out-20 side and it was a clear day, there was no rain, the sky was 21 clear.

22                  Now, assume that in this Courtroom the blinds are 23 drawn and the drapes are closed so that you cannot look out-24 side. Assume that you are sitting in this jury box and 25 despite the fact that it was dry when you entered the building

2 somebody walks in with an umbrella dripping water, followed 3 then in a short time by a man with a raincoat, and the rain-4 coat is wet.

5                   Taking our assumptions, you cannot look out the 6 Courtroom to see whether it is raining or not, and if you 7 are asked, is it raining, you cannot say you know it directly 8 of your own observation, but certainly upon the combination 9 of facts as I have given them, even though when you enter the 10 building it was not raining outside, it would be reasonable 11 and logical for you to conclude that it was raining now.

12                  That is about all there is to circumstantial evi-13 dence. You infer on the basis of reason and experience 14 from an established fact the existence of some further fact.

15                  There are times when different inferences may be 16 drawn from facts, whether they are proved by direct or cir-17 cumstantial evidence. The Government may ask you to draw one 18 set of inferences while the defendants may ask you to draw 19 another. It is for you to decide, and for you alone, what 20 inference you will draw.

21                  Knowledge and intent, which I have mentioned be-22 fore and tried to define for you, exist in the mind. Since 23 it is not possible to look into a man's mind to see what 24 went on, the only way you have for arriving at a decision is 25 these inferences.

2 It is for you to take into consideration all the 3 facts and circumstances shown by the evidence, including the 4 exhibits, and to determine from all such facts and circum-5 stances whether the requisite knowledge and intent were pres-6 ent at the time in question. Direct proof is unnecessary.
7 Knowledge and intent may be inferred from all the surrounding 8 circumstances.

9 On the question of knowledge and willfullness, 10 you may also consider false statements as evidence of a 11 defendant's guilty state of mind. If you find that a defen-12 dant when questioned by a law enforcement official made any 13 deliberate false statement, you may consider such false state-14 ment as circumstantial evidence from which consciousness of 15 guilt or criminal intent may be inferred. This is so because 16 of the well established legal principle, that exculpatory 17 statements made upon interrogation with intent to divert 18 suspicion or mislead the investigator, when shown to be 19 false, are circumstantial evidence of guilty consciousness 20 and have independent probative force.

21 Again, whether or not evidence as to a defendant's 22 explanation or statement points to a consciousness of guilt, 23 and the significance, if any, to be attached to any such evi-24 dence, are matters for determination by you.

25 Certain alleged false statements by the defendant

2 Kaye have been testified to. This evidence may be considered 3 as relevant evidence of whether the defendant Kaye acted 4 knowingly and willfully in connection with the charges of 5 conspiracy and unlawful use of a communication facility as 6 alleged in this indictment.

7                   Turning from the subject which I just discussed 8 to one other subject. You have heard me mention at the be-9 ginning of the trial and during this charge reasonable doubt.

10                  What is reasonable doubt? A reasonable doubt 11 is such a doubt as would cause prudent men to hesitate to 12 act in matters of importance to themselves. It is a doubt 13 which a reasonable person has after carefully weighing all 14 the evidence. Reasonable doubt is one which appeals to your 15 reason, your judgment, your common sense and your experience.

16                  Reasonable doubt is not caprice, whim or speculation.
17 It is not an excuse to avoid the performance of an unpleasant 18 duty. It is not sympathy for a defendant. Vague, specula-19 tive or imaginary qualms or misgivings are not reasonable 20 doubts.

22 the guilt of each defendant to a mathematical certainty or 23 beyond all possible doubt. If that were the rule, few men 24 or women, however guilty they might be, would be convicted.
25 The reason is that in this world of ours it is practically

2 impossible for a person to be absolutely certain of any 3 controverted fact which by its nature is not susceptible of 4 mathematical certainty. In consequence, the law is such 5 that in a criminal case it is enough that the defendant's 6 guilt is established beyond a reasonable doubt, not beyond 7 all doubt.

8           If, after a fair, impartial and careful considera-9 tion of all the evidence, you are convinced of the guilt of 10 the defendant you are at that point considering, you must 11 convict. If, on the other hand, after such a fair, impartial 12 and careful consideration of all the evidence, you doubt the 13 defendant's guilt, you must acquit him.

14           You are to decide the case upon the evidence and 15 the evidence alone. You must not allow your personal feel-16 ings about the sexual activities, morals or the ways of life 17 of the defendants to affect your decision, and you must not 18 be influenced by any assumption, conjecture or sympathy or 19 any inference not warranted by the facts until proven to 20 your satisfaction.

21           The defendants have each been charged with sepa-22 rate crimes in the 12 counts of the indictment which are being 23 given to you. I have indicated that of the 14 counts ori-24 ginally, 12 will be submitted to you, Counts 1 through 5, 25 7 through 12 and 14. You recall from what I have told you

2 that different defendants are charged in different counts.

3                   Each defendant is entitled to have his guilt or 4 innocence as to each of the crimes charged determined from 5 his own conduct and on the evidence which applies to him as 6 if he were being tried alone. When you deliberate, you shall 7 give separate consideration and render separate verdicts 8 with respect to each defendant and each count.

9                   To assist you, and only to assist you in this,
10 not to suggest anything one way or the other, Miss Kruger 11 will hand your foreman a verdict form which sets forth the 12 names of the defendants, the numbers of the counts on which 13 they are charged, and then have a space for your foreman to 14 work with as the jury deliberates. This is done merely to 15 assist you and is not given to you to suggest anything.

16                   If you find that a defendant is guilty beyond a 17 reasonable doubt on any of the crimes charged in the indict-18 ment, a verdict of guilty as to that count should be returned 19 as to him. The guilt or innocence of any one defendant of 20 any of the crimes charged should not influence your verdict 21 regarding any other defendant. You may find either one, 22 two, three or all of the defendants guilty. You might find 23 either one, two, three or all of the defendants not guilty.
24 You will consider each defendant individually on each charge.

25                   I will conclude with these few final remarks:

2 Under your oath as jurors you may not allow the 3 consideration of punishment which might be inflicted upon a 4 convicted defendant to influence your verdict in any way or 5 in any sense enter into your deliberations. The duty of im-6 posing sentence rests exclusively upon the Court. Your 7 function is solely to determine the guilt or innocence of 8 each defendant upon the basis of the evidence and the law.

10 If you believe that some or all of the charges 11 against a defendant have not been proven beyond a reasonable 12 doubt, that defendant should be acquitted of those charges 13 which the Government has not proved beyond a reasonable doubt.
14 But, on the other hand, if you find that a charge has been 15 proved beyond a reasonable doubt, you should not refuse be-16 cause of sympathy or for any other reason to render a verdict 17 of guilty.

18 There are 12 people on this jury. Any verdict 19 must be the unanimous verdict of all of you. However, no 20 one should enter upon the deliberation in the jury room with 21 such pride of opinion that he or she would refuse to change 22 it if convinced by intelligent argument on the part of another 23 juror or jurors that they are right. However, you are not to 24 do violence to your own well founded opinion and common sense.

As I said a few moments ago, you will be taking your good common sense into the jury room. I expect that when

2 you come out of the jury room your good common sense and 3 your good conscience will accompany you.

4 You are entitled, each of you, to your opinion.

5 In other words, each of you must decide the case for himself 6 or herself after thoroughly reviewing the evidence and ex-7 changing views with your fellow jurors.

8 After I have met with counsel at the side bar 9 Miss Kruger will give your foreman the verdict form to which 10 I made reference a few moments ago to assist you in reviewing 11 this case.

12 After you have exchanged your views in the jury 13 room, you should vote on each defendant and on each count 14 separately, and the vote will be kept by your foreman.

15 When you go into the jury room, ladies and gentle-16 men, you will be placed in charge of the marshal. All commu-17 nications with the Court after you are placed in charge of 18 the marshal will be by note given to the marshal. Your note 19 will then be delivered to me. I will then review what you 20 request with counsel, and, where proper, will try to oblige 21 you and respond to your requests.

22 It is now five minutes after eleven. As I say, 23 I am going to speak with counsel just a moment. In the mean-24 time I would remind you that if you are deliberating during 25 the middle of the day, the so-called lunch hour, I will give

2 you an option based on the weather. If you wish to order 3 sandwiches sent in, you may do so. I suggest if you do that, 4 you allow for perhaps an hour from the time you place your 5 order to the time the sandwiches are delivered. If you wish 6 to go out the marshal will take you out to a restaurant. So 7 I suggest that since we are close to the noon hour you might 8 consider which of those two options you wish to exercise.
9 Needless to say, your lunch will be paid for either way.

10 I suggest, finally, that this is an important 11 case to all concerned, and I want this jury to deliberate 12 with the idea in mind that you are under no pressure to act 13 or not act. Your first obligation is to review the evidence 14 in the case, to discuss it fully and thoroughly.

15 I will see to your convenience in every way
16 possible, so that I would ask that you put out of your mind 17 any feelings of pressure, because you are now about to en-18 gage in one of the most important duties of citizenship.

19 Ladies and gentlemen, I have now completed my 20 charge. Before sending you to deliberate, I will see counsel at 21 the side bar. In the meantime I would ask Mrs. Satin to get 22 her coat from the jury room and to return to the Courtroom, 23 because after I send the jury in to deliberate, I should 24 like to speak with her. She is in the frustrating position 25 of having been our sole surviving alternate juror. She has

2 sat through this case but will not be able to be present to 3 deliberate with you. So when I send her on her way I want 4 to thank her personally on behalf of all of us for the ser-5 vice which she has rendered to this Court in the case here on 6 trial.

7 So, Mrs. Satin, if you will just step out, get 8 your belongings and return to your seat, I would appreciate 9 it.

10 I will see counsel at the side bar.

11 (At the side bar.)

12 THE COURT: I will ask first if there are any ex-13 ceptions, and then I will ask if there are any supplementary 14 requests.

15 I will turn first to you, Mr. Mukasey.

16 MR. MUKASEY: Your Honor, only in the nature of 17 requests, I have two. First, that your Honor indicated in 18 discussing the conspiracy count, that a defendant quite 19 properly cannot be found guilty of conspiring with the 20 Government.

21 On the other hand, I would ask that your Honor 22 tell the jury that David Stolzenberg is a co-conspirator, 23 and there are others, but I think he is the only relevant 24 one who appears on the tapes who is not accounted for in the 25 indictment.

2 Request number two really concerns the aiding 3 and abetting theory with regard to Counts 2, 3 and 4.

4 As I understand it, the Government is entitled, 5 if the evidence warrants it, to an aiding and abetting charge 6 with regard to a substantive count even though Title 18, 7 Section 2, may not be set forth in the indictment. Title 8 18, Section 2 is not, in fact, set forth in the indictment, 9 but I think the facts of the case warrant an aiding and abet-10 ting charge, and we would request it.

11 THE COURT: I will hear the other counsel on both 12 of your requests and then I will hear them on any of theirs.

13 MR. ARKIN: With respect to Mr. Mukasey's first 14 request, your Honor, I don't believe your Honor can properly 15 charge Mr. Stolzenberg is a co-conspirator. I just don't 16 think it is an appropriate request.

17 As far as the second request, it really does not 18 affect my client. I believe that is one which Mr. Levison 19 ought to speak to.

20 MR. LEVISON: In the indictment it charges that 21 Durst, Steinberg and Capo did certain overt acts which would 22 contravene the request that Mr. Mukasey wants as to that par-23 ticular charge.

24 As I said the other day, I don't know how to 25 handle a person's rights, where they are indicted, where the

2 alleged co-conspirator, the one who is deceased, and mentioned 3 on the tape.

4 THE COURT: Do you object to my giving an aiding 5 and abetting charge as a supplement to my charge?

6 MR. LEVISON: Is there any way that charge can 7 be made showing that Durst--he mentioned Durst. Do you know 8 what I mean by that? They are both connected.

9 THE COURT: Do you object?

10 MR. LEVISON: I object.

11 THE COURT: I considered this matter when I was 12 reviewing the requests to charge, and for several reasons 13 I determine not to charge aiding and abetting. It had been 14 requested and was one which I had denied.

15 I am going to adhere to my prior ruling.

16 I think on your first request, Mr. Mukasey, it 17 would be inappropriate for me to go further. If the jury 18 should make a request later to know who or what Mr. Stolzen-19 berg is, I can deal with it at that time after consulting 20 with all of you. And therefore I will decline to supplement 21 my charge relative to David Stolzenberg. I will also de-22 cline to charge aiding and abetting.

23 Now, I will hear from the defendants.

24 MR. LEVISON: You didn't mention Durst as to 25 overt acts--

2 THE COURT: I have handled it to the extent that 3 I intend to.

4 MR. LEVISON: All right, that is an answer.

5 THE COURT: Let me ask first if you have anything 6 further. I will start with Mr. Arkin and then I will go to 7 Mr. Levison and then Mr. Ellis and then Mr. Siegel.

8 MR. ARKIN: As your Honor well knows, under the 9 Federal rules I have to repeat my exceptions to the requests 10 which were denied.

11 So we except to the failure to charge defendant 12 Steinberg's requests 3, 12A through C, 13, 14B, 16, 18B, 23, 13 24, 26, 26A, 28A, 28B, 28C, 31, 32, 35 through 40, 42 and 14 26B and C, and 39A and B.

15 Now first, if your Honor please, I would request 16 --this is in the event the jury calls for the indictment--I 17 would ask that the indictment be redacted first to remove 18 the paragraphs--

19 THE COURT: It has been. It is already re-20 dacted.

21 MR. ARKIN: Also to remove reference to anybody 22 against whom there is no proof, as certain of the alleged 23 co-conspirators who have been cut lose from the case one 24 way or the other.

25 THE COURT: I will suggest that you look at the 2 redacted indictment. It is not going to go in now. It is 3 only going to go in when requested, and then we can cover 4 that matter. I am not going to send it in with them now.

5 MR. ARKIN: Now, one of the principal exceptions
6 or objections I have to your Honor's charge in this respect 7 is that your Honor--

8 THE CLERK: One of the jurors is uncomfortable 9 and would like to be excused.

B10 10 (End of side bar discussion.)

11 THE COURT: I believe that one of the jurors 12 would like to step inside.

13 What I am going to do is, I am going to send you 14 all into the jury room with the strict instructions not to 15 begin your discussion of the case.

16 Mrs. Satin, if you are comfortable you can wait 17 here.

18 The jury is to go into the jury room with my 19 instructions not to begin deliberating in the case until 20 I have finished with counsel. You will be more comfortable 21 there for the next few minutes.

22 The jury is excused. Mrs. Satin, you will re-23 main out here.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

APPLICATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA IN THE MATTER OF AN ORDER AUTHORIZING THE INTER-CEPTION OF WIRE COMMUNICATIONS.

ORDER

73 Cr 1095

CHT

AUTHORIZING INTERCEPTION OF WIRE COMMUNICATIONS

TO: Special Agents of the Drug Enforcement Administration
United States Department of Justice

Application under oath having been made before me by the United States through its attorney John P. Cooney, Jr., as Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, and an "investigative or law enforcement officer" as defined in Section 2510(7) of Title 18, United States Code, for an Order Authorizing the Interception of Wire Communications pursuant to Section 2518 of Title 18, and full consideration having been given to the matters set forth therein, the Court finds:

(a) there is probable cause to believe that Stuart L. Steinberg and others as yet unknown, have committed, and are committing, offenses involving illegal distributing, delivering, and possession with intent to distribute and otherwise illegal dealing in controlled substances, to-wit: Phenylcyclidine Hydrochloride (hereinafter referred to as "PCP"), controlled under Schedule III of 21 U.S.C. §171, in violation, respectively, of 21 U.S.C. 841(a); causing the facilitation of the commission of the foregoing offenses in violation of 21 U.S.C. 843(b); and conspiracy to violate the foregoing statute in violation of 21 U.S.C. 846.

(b) there is probable cause to believe that wire communications concerning the offenses described in paragraph (a) above, will be obtained through the interception; authorization for which is herein applied for. In particular, these wire communications will be between Stuart L. Steinberg, his suppliers or customers, and others as yet unknown concerning:

(1) The date, time, place and manner in which controlled substances in Schedule III will be illegally delivered to or by Stuart L. Steinberg.

(2) The price Stuart L. Steinberg is to pay or receive for the controlled substances and the date, time, place and manner of payment for the drugs; and

(3) The nature and extent of the distribution system in which Stuart L. Steinberg and others as yet unknown are involved, the (identification of and) degree of involvement of those persons whose relationship to Stuart L. Steinberg is not fully known, and the identification and degree of involvement of others as yet unknown.

(c) normal investigative procedures have been tried and failed and further normal procedures reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed and are too dangerous to be used, if tried.

(d) there is probable cause to believe that the telephones listed and unlisted belonging to Stuart L. Steinberg located at 135 E. 35th, Apartment 2-R, New York, New York and carrying the telephone number 212-889-2606 and 212-889-2674 has been used, is being used, and will be used, in connection with the commission of the offenses described in paragraph (a), and is commonly used by Stuart L. Steinberg and others as yet unknown.

WHEREFORE, it is hereby ordered that:

Special Agents of the Drug Enforcement Administration, United States Department of Justice, are authorized pursuant to the application authorized by the Attorney General of the United States, the Honorable Elliot Richardson, under the power conferred on the Attorney General by Section 2516 of Title 18, United States Code to:

at 135 E. 35th Street, New York,
New York and bearing the telephone numbers 212-889-2606 and 212-889-2674.

(2) such interception shall not automatically terminate when the type of communications described above in paragraph (a) have first been obtained, but shall continue until communications are intercepted which reveal the details of the scheme which has been used by Stuart L. Steinberg and others as yet unknown, to distribute, deliver and possess with the intent to distribute and otherwise illegally deal in narcotics and dangerous drugs, and the identity of their confederates, their places of operation, and the nature of the conspiracy involved therein or for a period of twenty (20) days from the date of this order, whichever is earlier.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, upon request of applicant, that the New York Telephone Company, a communications common carrier as defined in Section 2510(10) of Title 18, United States Code, shall forthwith furnish the applicant and the Drug Enforcement Administration all information, facilities and technical assistance necessary to accomplish the interception unobtrusively and with a minimum of interference with the services that such carrier is according the persons whose communications are to be intercepted. The furnishing of such facilities or technical assistance by the New York Telephone Company to be compensated for by the applicant or the Drug Enforcement Administration, United States Department of Justice, at the prevailing rates.

JOHN P. COONEY, Jr., as Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, being duly sworn, states:

This sworn application is submitted in support of an order authorizing the interception of wire communications.
This application has been submitted only after lengthy discussion concerning the necessity for such an application with various officials of the Drug Enforcement Administration United States Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., together with agents of the Drug Enforcement Administration.

1. He is an "investigative or law enforcement officer -- of the United States" within the meaning of Section 2510(7) of Title 18, United States Code -- that is, he is an attorney authorized by law to prosecute or participate in the prosecution of offenses enumerated in Section 2516 of Title 18, United States Code.

2. Pursuant to the power conferred on him by Section 2516 of Title 18, United States Code, the Attorney General of the United States, the Honorable Elliot Richardson has authorized this application for an order authorizing the interception of wire communications.

of notification of approval from the Assistant Attorney General of the Criminal Division, the Honorable Henry E. Petersen and the memorandum of authorization approval by the Attorney General of the United States, the Honorable Elliot Richardson.

3. This application seeks authorization to intercept wire communications of Stuart L. Steinberg and others as yet unknown, and their suppliers and customers, concerning offenses enumerated in Section 2516 of Title 18, United States Code -- that is, offenses involving the illegal distribution, delivery and possession with the intent to distribute and otherwise illegal dealings in narcotics and dangerous drugs, to wit: Phenylcyclidine Hydrochloride (hereinafter referred to as "PCP") controlled under Schedule III of 21 U.S.C. 812 in violation of Section 841(a), of Title 21, United States Code; the use of communications facilities in committing or causing the facilitation of the commission of the foregoing offenses in violation of 21 U.S.C. 843(b); and conspiracy to violate the foregoing statutes in violation of 21 U.S.C. 846, which have been committed and are being committed by Stuart L. Steinberg and others as yet unknown.

4. He has discussed all the circumstances of these offenses with Special Agent Brian J. Noone of the New York Office of the Drug Enforcement Administration who has conducted the investigation herein and has examined the affidavit of Special Agent Brian J. Noone (attached to this application as Exhibit "B", and incorporated by reference herein) which alleges the facts therein in order to show that:

(a) there is probable cause to believe that Stuart L. Steinberg and others as yet unknown, have committed, and are committing, offenses involving illegal distributing, delivering, and possession with intent to distribute and otherwise illegal dealing in controlled substances, to wit: PCP, controlled under Schedule III of 21 U.S.C. 812, in violation, respectively, of 21 U.S.C. 841(a); the use of communications facilities in committing or causing the facilitation of the commission of the foregoing offenses in violation of 21 U.S.C. 843(b); and conspiracy to violate the foregoing statute in violation of 21 U.S.C. 846.

(b) there is probable cause to believe that wire communications concerning the offenses described in paragraph three (3), above, will be obtained through the interception, authorization for which is herein applied for. In particular, these wire communications will be between Stuart L. Steinberg, his suppliers or customers and others as yet unknown concerning:

- (1) the date, time, place and manner in which controlled substances in Schedule III will be illegally delivered to or by Stuart L. Steinberg.
- (2) The price Stuart L. Steinberg is to pay or receive for the controlled substances and the date, time, place and manner of payment for the drugs; and

(3) The nature and extent of the distribution system in which Stuart L. Steinberg and others as yet unknown are involved, the (identification of and) degree of involvement of those persons whose relationship to Stuart L. Steinberg is not fully known, and the identification and degree of involvement of others as yet unknown.

(c) Normal investigative procedures have been tried and failed to and further normal procedures reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed and are too dangerous to be used, if tried.

(d) there is probable cause to believe that the telephone listed and unlisted in the name of Stuart L. Steinberg, located at 135 E. 35th Street, New York, New York and carrying the telephone number 212-889-2606 and 212-889-2674 has been used, is being used, and will be used, in connection with the commission of the offenses described in paragraph three (3), and is commonly used by Stuart L. Steinberg and others as yet unknown.

5. To my knowledge no other application for authorization to intercept, or for approval of interception of, wire or oral communications involving any of the same persons, facilities, or places specified in this application has been made to any judge by any agent of the United States Government in connection with the instant investigation.

WHEREFORE, your affiant believes that probably cause exists to believe that Stuart L. Steinberg and others as yet unknown, are engaged in the commission of the above-described offenses, and that they have used, and are using the telephone listed and unlisted in the name of Stuart L. Steinberg at 135 E. 35th Street, New York, New York and bearing the telephone number 212-889-2606 and 212-889-2674 in connection with the commission of those offenses, that communications concerning these offenses will be intercepted to and from that telephone, and that normal investigative procedures reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed and are too dangerous to be used.

On the basis of the allegations contained in this application and on the basis of the affidavit of Special Agent Brian Noone, attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit "B" attached affiant herewith requests this court to issue an order, pursuant to the power conferred on it by Section 2518 of Title 18, United States Code, authorizing the Drug Enforcement Administration of the United States Department of Justice to intercept wire communications to and from the above-described telephone until communications are intercepted which reveal the details of the scheme which has been used by Stuart L. Steinberg and others with intent to distribute and otherwise illegally deal in narcotics and dangerous drugs, and the identity of their confederates, their places of operation and the nature of the conspiracy involved therein, or for a period of twenty (20) days from the date of that order, whichever is earlier.

JPC:nc

It is further requested that this court issue an order pursuant to the power conferred on it by Section 2518(4)(e) of Title 18, United States Code, directing that the New York Telephone Company, a communication common carrier as defined in Section 2510(10) of Title 18, United States Code, shall furnish the applicant forthwith all information facilities and technical assistance necessary to accomplish the interception unobtrusively and with a minimum of interference with the services that such carrier is according the person whose communications are to be intercepted, the furnishing of such facilities or technical assistance by the New York Telephone Company to be compensated for by the applicant at the prevailing rates.

BRIAN J. NOONE, Special Agent of the Drug Enforcement Administration, United States Department of Justice, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am an "investigative or law enforcement officer...of the United States" within the meaning of Section 2510(7) of Title 18, United States Code, that is, an officer of the United States who is empowered by law to conduct investigations of, and to make arrests for, offenses enumerated in Section 2516 of Title 18, United States Code.

2. I make this affidavit in support of an application which seeks authorization to intercept wire communications to and from telephone numbers (212) 889-2606 listed in the name of Stuart L. Steinberg located at 135 E. 35th Street, Apartment 2-R, New York, New York and (212) 889-2674, an unlisted telephone number subscribed to by Stuart L. Steinberg at the same address concerning offenses involving violations of Sections 312, 341 and 846 of Title 21, United States Code, by Stuart L. Steinberg and other persons participating with him in said violations.

ATC:ho

3. I have participated in the investigation of the offenses and as a result of my participation in the investigation and of reports made to me by agents with whom I have been working in the investigation, I am familiar with all circumstances of the offenses. On the basis of that familiarity, I allege the facts contained in the numbered paragraphs to show that:

(a) There is probable cause for belief that Stuart L. Steinberg, and other persons yet unknown, have been and are now committing offenses enumerated in section 841 (a) and section 846, Title 21, United States Code - that is, offenses involving the illegal distribution, delivery, possession with intent to distribute and otherwise illegal dealing in controlled substances, to wit: Phenyclidine.

Hydrochloride (hereinafter referred to as "HCH") is controlled under schedule III of 21 U.S.C. 812, in violation of section 841 (a) of Title 21, United States Code; the use of communication facilities in committing or causing the facilitation of the commission of the foregoing offenses in violation of 21 U.S.C. 843 (b); and conspiracy to violate the foregoing statutes in violation of 21 U.S.C. 846, which have been committed and are now being committed by Stuart L. Steinberg, and others as yet unknown.

(b) There is probable cause for belief that particular communications regarding confederates and locations involved in the illegal trafficking of narcotics and dangerous drugs will be obtained through the interception of wire communications, the authorization of which is being hereby applied for;

(c) Normal investigative procedures reasonably appear unlikely to succeed, or are too dangerous to be used;

(d) There is probable cause for belief that a telephone bearing the number (212) 889-2606 and 889-2674 located at 135 E. 35th Street, New York, New York, has been and is being used to carry out the offenses referred to in paragraph 3(a) above, and is more fully set forth hereinafter.

4. On or about June 26, 1973, an informant of Drug Enforcement Administration introduced me to an individual initially identified only as "Stevie Crystal" at 135 E. 35th Street, at Apartment 2-R and on that date I received a free sample of .8 grams of "TCP" from "Stevie Crystal". On the same date, "Stevie Crystal" gave me the telephone numbers (212) 889-2606 and 889-2674 as the telephone numbers of his apartment where he could be contacted for future transactions. Through reference to the register of apartments at 135 E. 35th Street and through a check with the New York Telephone Security Office, it was determined that the telephone numbers (212) 889-2606 and 889-2674 and apartment 2-R at 135 E. 35th Street are registered to Stuart L. Steinberg.

5. On or about the evening of June 27, 1973, I telephoned Stuart L. Steinberg, using telephone number 889-2606, told Steinberg that I would come to Steinberg's apartment for the purpose of purchasing two (2) ounces of PCP. When Steinberg agreed to this, I proceeded to abovementioned apartment and there purchased fifty-eight (58) grams of PCP for $2400 from Stuart L. Steinberg.

6. On or about July 2, 1973, I telephoned Stuart L. Steinberg using the telephone number 889-2606 and stated that I and my "people" were pleased with the quality of the PCP purchased on June 27, 1973 and that I and my people might be interested in purchasing either one-half pound or one pound of PCP from Stuart L. Steinberg. Stuart L. Steinberg agreed to this proposition and Steinberg requested that I specify the exact weight so that Steinberg could, in turn, contact "his people" to make the quantity available. On July 3, 1973, I telephoned Steinberg using the telephone number 889-2606 and informed Steinberg that I had been unable to contact the principal for whom I was purchasing PCP and that further discussion of a second purchase of PCP from Steinberg should be put off until July 10, 1973. Steinberg acquiesced in this arrangement.

7. On or about the evening of July 10, 1973, I telephoned Steinberg using telephone number 889-2606 and informed Steinberg that I wished to come to Steinberg's apartment to discuss the quantity of the proposed second purchase of PCP from Steinberg. When Steinberg agreed to this, I went to Steinberg's apartment at 135 E. 35th Street and proposed to purchase from Steinberg one-half pound of PCP for a price of $8800. Steinberg agreed to this offer and ~~immediately~~ called "his people" so that the PCP would be delivered to Steinberg at his apartment for sale to me later that evening. During the course of his conversation, Steinberg informed "his people" that I would not be there when they arrived, and that he was aware that they did not want to meet me and that I did not wish to meet them. Later that evening, I returned to Steinberg's apartment accompanied by Special Agent Arthur Anderson who was acting in an undercover capacity and, who was introduced to Steinberg as the principal for whom I had been acting. At the apartment, Steinberg delivered the one-half pound of PCP to me in exchange for $8800, as witnessed by Special Agent Anderson. At the same time, Steinberg and Special Agent ~~Anderson~~ and I discussed a ~~third~~ ~~subsequent~~ purchase of PCP which was to be in the amount of twenty (20) pounds. Steinberg instructed me to telephone him at 11:00 p.m. this same evening after he had had an opportunity to speak to "his people" about this proposed sale. Pursuant to this request, I telephoned Steinberg using telephone number 889-2606 at or about 11:00 p.m. at which time Steinberg stated that "his people" had just left his apartment and that they wanted to know the quantity of PCP which Special Agent Anderson and I wanted to purchase. Steinberg told me that "his people" could sell Special Agent

Anderson and I from twenty (20) to fifty (50) pounds of PCP if we had the cash to make such a purchase.

I told Steinberg that we would purchase fifty (50) pounds of PCP and that cash represented no problem to us.

8. On various dates after this meeting, I telephoned Steinberg using 889-2606 to check on the status of the proposed third sale. On these occasions, Steinberg told me that he had not heard from "his people" and therefore, was unable to proceed with this proposed transaction.

9. On or about July 16, 1973, I telephoned Steinberg using 889-2674 and, after I inquired about the status of the proposed third purchase of PCP, Steinberg informed me that he and "his people" could sell me twenty (20) pounds of PCP, that the sale could be consummated on Monday, July 23, 1973, and that he would inform me of the details of the transaction at a later time.

10. From my experience, and knowledge of the facts developed in this investigation to date, it appears that Stuart L. Steinberg, and "his people" are engaged in major distributions of PCP. This conclusion is based on the deliveries of PCP made to me by Stuart L. Steinberg and the statements made to me by him that:

A. He could supply fifty (50) pounds of PCP to me.

B. He could, over a period of time, supply an unlimited amount of PCP to us from an out of state laboratory; and the presence of drug distribution equipment in his apartment, including scales and weights, which I observed in my contacts with Steinberg.

II. Normal investigative procedures have not succeeded in establishing the full extent of the activities conducted by Stuart L. Steinberg related to the purchase or sale of controlled substances, nor have the location and identity of the source of Stuart L. Steinberg's supply been established. Normal investigative procedures reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed in obtaining the evidence necessary for the following reasons:

A. At this time there is no known under-cover access to his supplier and no chance of developing such access because of the covert manner in which Stuart L. Steinberg operates; and

B. My experience and the experience of other Special Agents of the Drug Enforcement Administration has shown that individuals dealing in large quantities of narcotics are particularly covert in their activities and wary of surveillance by Federal and State law enforcement personnel. Such dealers very rarely keep records, deal personally with a very few trusted individuals and isolate themselves from other individuals in the distribution organization.

12. In my opinion the intercepting of wire communications conducted by Stuart L. Steinberg over the telephones having numbers (212) 889-2606 and 889-2674 in conjunction with substantial controlled "orders" of PCP will disclose sufficient information to determine those from whom Stuart L. Steinberg is obtaining his supply, and to whom he is selling PCP, as well as the times, dates, places, and manner in which deliveries are effected.

13. For the reasons set out above all normal avenues of investigation are closed and it is my belief that the only reasonable way to develop the necessary evidence of violations of Sections 312, 841 and 846 of Title 21, United States Code, by Stuart L. Steinberg and his confederates is to intercept wire communications to and from the telephone described in paragraph 3(d) above.

14. I have not, nor has any other agent of the United States Government to my knowledge, made any application to any judge for authorization to intercept, or for approval of interceptions of, wire or oral communications involving any of the same persons, facilities or places specified in this affidavit.

WHEREFORE, your deponent respectfully requests this Court to issue an order pursuant to the power conferred on it by Title 18, United States Code, Section 2518, authorizing the Drug Enforcement Administration, Department of Justice, to intercept wire communications to and from (212) 889-2606 and 889-2674 located at 135 E. 35th Street, Apartment 2-R, New York, New York, for a period of 20 days from the effective date of that order or until such time as communications are intercepted which will:

(a) reveal the identity of person or persons from whom Stuart L. Steinberg is illegally obtaining his drugs; (b) reveal the identity of any person or persons to whom he may be illegally selling drugs; and (c) reveal any other information as to the extent that Stuart L. Steinberg is involved in trafficking in illicit narcotics and dangerous drugs in violation of sections 812, 841 and 846 of Title 21, United States Code, and which reveal the identities of his confederates, their places of operation, and the nature of the conspiracy involved therein.

P., 18 U.S.C. §2518(10)(a), and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution suppressing the contents of all intercepted conversations and evidence derived therefrom. For the reasons which follow, the motion is denied.

The evidence sought to be suppressed includes the contents of telephone conversations intercepted pursuant to orders of this Court dated July 20, 1973 and August 20, 1973, and all evidence derived therefrom, upon the grounds that the communications were unlawfully intercepted, the orders of authorization under which the communications were intercepted are insufficient on their face, and the interceptions were not made in conformity with the orders of authorization.

Steinberg argues that the issuance of the wiretap order of July 20, 1973 was unjustified and that the facts submitted to the judge to whom the application for an order was made were inadequate. Defendant argues that in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§2518(1)(c) and (3)(c), wiretapping was resorted to reflexively as the initial step in the government's investigation despite the availability and practicability of traditional investigative techniques. However, a review of the government's application belies this argument. The investigation had been in progress for almost a month, $11,200 in government funds had been expended to purchase approximately three-quarters of a pound of phenylcyclidine hydrochloride ("PCP"), a controlled substance, from Steinberg, and his source or sources of the controlled substance remained undisclosed. While defendant argues that traditional investigative techniques would have sufficed, the fact is that they had not up to that point. This Court finds that the application substantially complied with the statutory requirement and the issuance of the July 20, 1973 order was proper. See U.S. v. Falcone, 364 F. Supp. 877, 889-890 (D.N.J. 1973).

Steinberg next argues that continuation on the wiretap beyond the first interception was illegal since the original and renewal wiretap applications failed to specifically ly request that the authorization to intercept not automatically terminate upon the first interception of a communication of the type described in the application and failed to include a description of facts establishing probable cause to believe that more than one communication of the type described would occur.

Since the nature of the investigation was such as to embrace the conduct of multiple parties over a period of time, a continuation on the wiretap beyond the first interception was justified and met Fourth Amendment requirements. See U.S. v. Poeta, 455 F.2d 117, 120-121 (2d Cir. 1972).

In addition, Steinberg argues that the order of August 20, 1973 was unlawful in that there was no showing of probable cause as of the time it was issued. He argues that the information asserted as the predicate for probable cause on August 20, 1973 was stale in that all of the underlying facts had occurred on and before August 7. Inasmuch as Steinberg has not refuted the government's allegation that he was on vacation during most of the intervening 13 days, and since there is no indication that anything else had changed, this argument must fail.

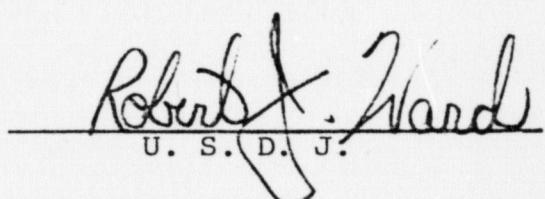

Steinberg next argues that the alleged failure to seal the application to renew the initial wiretap order violates 18 U.S.C. §2518(8)(b) and that all communications intercepted pursuant to both orders must be suppressed. Defendant misconceives the statutory purpose for sealing and offers no federal case support for his argument. Indeed, contrary authority is found in U.S. v. Cantor, 470 F.2d 890, 892-893 (3d Cir. 1972). Absent a showing of prejudice to any of the defendants, this branch of the motion must be denied.

Finally, defendant argues that a minimization hearing is required based on a comparison of the number of calls intercepted with the number of pertinent calls as set forth in the affidavit of Special Agent Frederic Boff, dated November 28, 1973. Defendant having made no prima facie showing based on the wiretap logs which have been made available to counsel, this branch of the motion must also be denied. Accordingly, the motion is in all respects denied.

It is so ordered.
